

Zhongshan, an important place of Cantonese food culture, has many delicious foods. As a famous city of Cantonese cuisine, more and more elements have been adding to traditional styles in past few decades. It brings a lot of creative concepts and changes and makes Cantonese cuisine more distinctive.

Seaport Restaurant under MGF Group is one of the Chinese restaurants to provide new style Cantonese cuisine in food service industry. In October 2017, the Group opened two more new Seaport Restaurants in Zhongshan and Zhuhai. The Zhongshan flagship outlet has been invested over 100 million dollars to renovate a place of size over 24,000 m². This outlet is so amazing that the grand hall can cater for more than 500 banquet tables at the same time and the size of the smallest VIP room is over 200 m².

Seaport Restaurant is one of the flagship outlets under MGF Group. Apart from European decoration style, stylish design and international cuisine, there is a professional wedding event planning team to provide comprehensive quality service. So it is an ideal place for family gatherings, business banquets and festive parties. As one of the China Best Hundred Food Service Corporations, MGF Group owns many famous brands like Seaport Restaurant, Seaport City, Prince Restaurant, The Grand Prince etc. Locating all over the country, these brands lead the development of high class food service business.

Operating such huge restaurant, systematic management is essential. The restaurant adopts professional Seito F&B Management System to support front line and back office operation. The system includes 58 units of ordering terminals, 122 units of kitchen and billing printers and other hardware equipment. More importantly, new style Cantonese restaurant brings in new operation method and management including the application of Intelligent Management App running in mobile which allows management team to grasp sales data more efficiently and easily; WeChat Ordering System giving better dining experience to the customers. New style cuisine and new style management becomes a new model of Cantonese restaurants.